

Dasseti ESG Recognized as a Leading Solution Empowering Financial Institutions to Achieve Sustainability Goals

Dasseti has secured a place on the prestigious 2024 ESGFinTech100 list.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, November 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dasseti, a leading provider of ESG data management and due diligence solutions for Limited Partners and General Partners in the private equity sector, has secured a place on the prestigious 2024 ESGFinTech100 list. This annual ranking highlights the top innovators enabling financial services organizations to meet Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) commitments and address today's stringent regulatory and operational challenges.

The ESGFinTech100 list, curated by a panel of industry experts and analysts, reviewed over 500 ESG-focused technology companies. As global regulatory requirements intensify, with mandates such as the EU's Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive (CSRD) gaining prominence, financial services firms face mounting pressure to achieve ESG compliance and transparent reporting. This list serves as a vital resource for senior management in financial services, identifying the tech solutions crucial to advancing sustainability and meeting net-zero targets.

Wissem Souissi, CEO of Dasseti, commented on the recognition: "Being included in the ESGFinTech100 reflects Dasseti's commitment to developing innovative technology that simplifies and strengthens ESG reporting for firms across the private markets, globally. Our goal is to support firms in navigating the complex ESG landscape with tools that not only streamline compliance but also empower them to make equitable, data-driven sustainability decisions."

According to Richard Sachar, Director of FinTech Global, "ESG-focused frameworks like the CSRD are becoming standard worldwide. Financial institutions now face expanding requirements for
