As the founder and CEO of Quantum River World, he has dedicated his career to advancing human understanding through “open body system AI” and universal principles derived from geometry. He brings the same focus on human-centric and truth-oriented values to Speak Now Before You Are Censored.

A Yale alumnus, Zehnder studied under influential scholars such as Dr. Roland Bainton and Dr. Paul Holmer, whose guidance shaped his perspectives on history, language, and thought. He has worked extensively on the relationships between mindsets and societal outcomes, a theme echoed in his other books and his documentary appearance in Beyond Physical Matter, available on Amazon Prime and Tubi.
