CEO of Tropic Ocean Airways*

The “Wish You Were Here” exhibit provides a dynamic and interactive experience where visitors can explore compelling stories, artifacts, and rarely-seen memorabilia that showcase the rich history of Palm Beach’s tourism industry. As a prominent player in regional tourism, Tropic Ocean Airways is proud to support this exhibit, helping educate both residents and visitors on the legacy and development of tourism in the Palm Beaches.

“We're honored to be part of an exhibit that celebrates the tourism legacy of the Palm Beaches and its lasting impact on the local community and the global travel industry,” said Rob Ceravolo, Founder and CEO of Tropic Ocean Airways.

In anticipation of the exhibit, the Historical Society hosted a launch cocktail party on New York City's Upper East Side, hosted by Jean Shafiroff, a member of the Society's Board of Advisors, and her husband, Martin Shafiroff. International fashion brand St. John presented its fall collection at the event, which welcomed more than 100 guests. The official Opening Reception for “Wish You Were Here” will take place on November 14, 2024, in West Palm Beach, in collaboration with The Palm Beaches.
