The Art Factory - Paterson, New Jersey's renowned creative hub that has inspired countless artists, musicians, and creators - will be auctioned online on November 26th by Max Spann Real Estate & Auction Company. Only 12 miles from New York City and minutes from Interstate 80, the 230,000 Sq ft, 21-building Great Falls industrial Park campus sits on 4.78 acres along Paterson Great Falls National Park.

A hub of the American industrial revolution, Paterson has long been a beacon of creativity and innovation,”

Max Spann, Jr., President

Dating back to the mid-1840s, the property is located at 60-70 Spruce Street and originally the home of The American Hemp Company. Over time, the location evolved from its pure industrial roots and grew into a center for creativity and community that celebrated the rich cultural heritage of Paterson. Most recently, the location was the home of the former Art Factory and featured artist studios, workshops, event space, and performance venues. Nicknamed "Hollywood East," the property is a choice location for film and TV, with many productions filming on the site, including The Irishman, West Side Story, and Doctor Strange.

In addition to its prime location, the property offers a versatile space customizable for multiple uses, including catering operations, warehousing, workshops, offices, art and production studios, and schools.

"We expect this auction to attract a diverse group of bidders considering all the possibilities the property offers. We're excited to see how the next chapter of the Art Factory unfolds." said Max Spann, Jr., President, Max Spann Real Estate & Auction Company.
