MontaVista Software Named a Cisco Distinguished Supplier

MontaVista is proud to announce receiving a Distinguished Supplier Recognition award from Cisco
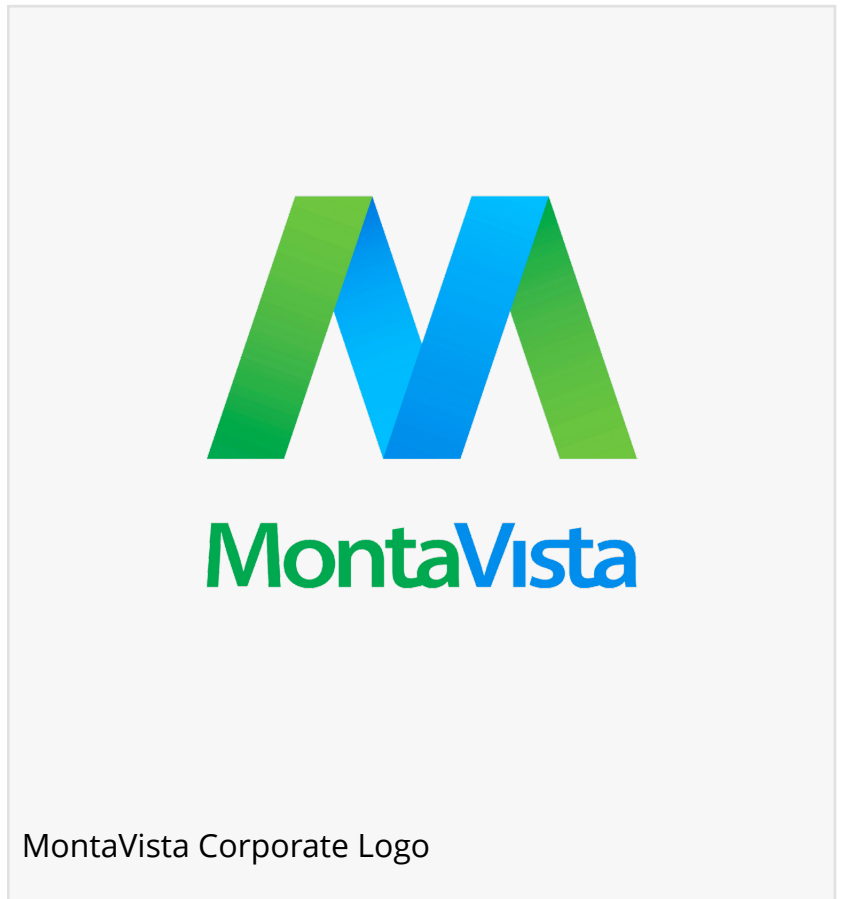

SAN JOSE, CA, UNITED STATES, November 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MontaVista® Software, LLC, a leader in commercial Embedded Linux® products and services, is proud to announce being honored, after years of co-operation with Cisco, with a Distinguished Vendor Recognition award. We at MontaVista are immensely thankful for the consideration and will continue to serve Cisco as well as all our entire customer base with the same relentless dedication to customer success.

MontaVista Corporate Logo

Since 1999, MontaVista Software has been helping Telecom, Medical, Mil-Aero, Industrial and Consumer Product customers embed hardened Linux to run their solutions. MontaVista's core values to these market solutions are:

1) Deep Linux architecture and design expertise to customize Linux to ensure adherence to all product requirements
2) Providing world-class technical support to quickly fix critical problems
3) Maintaining Linux with critical CVE and bug fix updates for 10+ years

These core values were originally delivered through MontaVista's own Linux but are now also offered to non-MontaVista distributions such as CentOS, Rocky Linux, Alma Linux, The Yocto Project based Linux, and others.

Supporting Quote:

"Working with the telecom market has been a tremendous experience for MontaVista in driving innovation (Carrier Grade Linux) and community leadership. MontaVista is proud to be named a Distinguished Vendor by Cisco.", said Jim Gallagher, Director of Sales at MontaVista Software, "This is a testament to our commitment to provide expertise in technical support and professional services along with high quality long-term Linux maintenance to Cisco and all our customers."

MontaVista is encouraging customers and partners to contact your local representative, or MontaVista at sales@mvista.com and/or visit www.mvista.com for more information and discussions.
