Blending Ancient Practices with Modern Relationship Insights

Founded by Erwan and Alicia Davon, The Davon Method integrates the principles of Tantra with contemporary relationship coaching techniques. The program offers a structured approach to help individuals and couples explore intimacy, communication, and personal growth.

“Our mission is to create a supportive environment where participants can deepen their understanding of themselves and their relationships,” said Erwan Davon, co-founder of The Davon Method.

Class Formats for Local and Global Communities

The in-person workshops in San Francisco provide an opportunity for hands-on, experiential learning in a small group setting. For participants unable to attend locally, the online classes deliver the same level of instruction and interaction, connecting students from around the

“Our online format ensures that geography is no barrier to those interested in exploring these practices,” said Alicia Davon, co-founder of The Davon Method.

Enrollment Now Open for Upcoming Workshops

The Davon Method is currently enrolling participants for both online and in-person classes. The workshops are designed for individuals and couples at all levels of experience.
