

Spoclearn Private Limited Recognized as a Premier PMI Authorized Training Partner

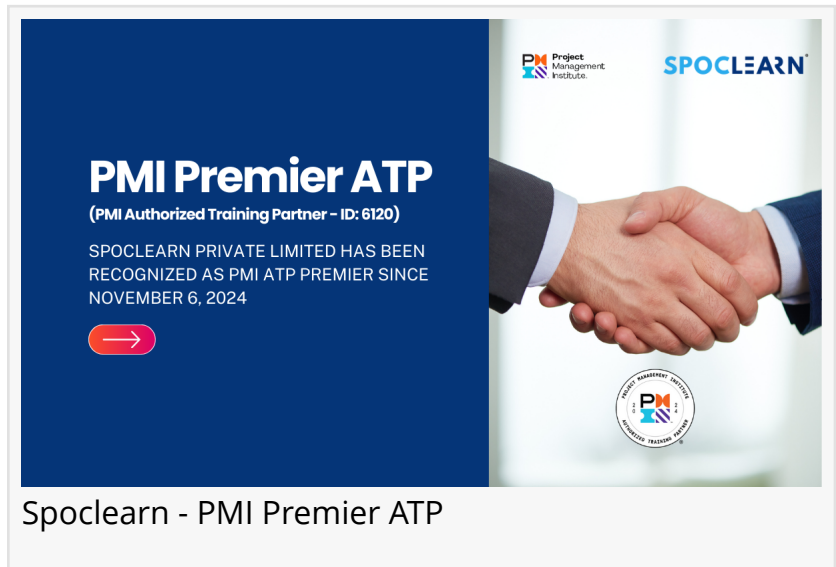

Spoclearn, a global training leader, is now a Premier PMI Authorized Training Partner, delivering PMI-certified courses worldwide to empower project leaders.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, November 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Spoclearn Private Limited, a leading global training and consulting organization, is thrilled to announce its new designation as a Premier PMI Authorized Training Partner (ATP), PMI ID: 6120. With this recognition from the Project Management Institute (PMI), Spoclearn solidifies its place among elite training providers, aligning with PMI's globally recognized standards and frameworks. This partnership underscores Spoclearn's commitment to delivering premier project management education, empowering professionals and enterprises with cutting-edge skills needed in today's digital economy.

The recognition as a Premier PMI Authorized Training Partner allows Spoclearn to deliver PMI's comprehensive training programs to a global audience. With offices strategically located in the United States, India, and Hong Kong, Spoclearn is equipped to meet the diverse and evolving needs of industries across regions, spanning sectors such as IT, finance, healthcare, manufacturing, and more. As a PMI ATP, Spoclearn will offer a robust suite of PMI certifications and courses, including the Project Management Professional \(PMP\)®, Certified Associate in Project Management \(CAPM\), Disciplined Agile®, and more, in a variety of languages, such as English, French, German, Japanese, Spanish, Chinese, and others. This multilingual approach ensures accessibility for learners worldwide, enabling them to upskill in their preferred language for a seamless learning experience.

"Our recognition as a Premier PMI Authorized Training Partner is a significant milestone," said Bharath Kumar J, Co-Founder of Spoclearn. "This partnership with PMI allows us to offer world-class training programs and reach an even broader audience. We're excited to meet the next-generation demands of professionals and enterprises, ensuring they are equipped with the critical skills needed to succeed in an increasingly digital and project-oriented world. This is not just a recognition for Spoclearn but a commitment to delivering excellence in project management education that adheres to global standards.”

PMI’s ATP Program is recognized worldwide for its rigorous standards and commitment to high-quality training. As an ATP, Spoclearn now has access to PMI’s exclusive resources, including PMI-developed courseware and instructors trained in PMI’s methodologies. With these resources, Spoclearn is poised to deliver a training experience that not only prepares learners for PMI certifications but also builds competencies that are vital for managing complex projects, fostering innovation, and adapting to today’s dynamic business landscape.

“We are proud to partner with PMI, a global governing body in project management,” said Mangesh Shahi, CEO of Spoclearn. “This partnership reflects our commitment to adhering to global standards and best practices. It’s about more than just training – it’s about transforming the way professionals and organizations think about project management in the digital age. With the rise of remote work and rapid digitalization, organizations need skilled project managers who can lead projects that drive business transformation and growth.”

As a PMI Premier ATP, Spoclearn will serve as a strategic learning partner for organizations and individuals who are eager to enhance their project management expertise, adopt industry-leading practices, and stay competitive. With a focus on customer-centric solutions, Spoclearn is dedicated to creating learning paths that address specific industry challenges and support long-term professional development.

As Spoclearn embarks on this exciting new chapter, the organization looks forward to making a meaningful impact in the world of project management. With this PMI partnership, Spoclearn is well-positioned to support the career aspirations of professionals and the strategic goals of enterprises worldwide.
