This powerful book provides essential strategies for navigating and mastering communication across business, personal relationships, and more.

Renata Reid brings her expertise from the world of luxury real estate to the art of high-stakes communication. As a Realtor and Senior Vice President of Sales at Sotheby's International Realty Canada, Renata is celebrated for her commitment to excellence, integrity, and innovation, providing unmatched service to clients navigating Calgary's luxury property market. Her wealth of experience makes her the go-to professional for buyers and sellers seeking a seamless, enjoyable real estate journey.

Renata Reid

Renata's open houses are not just property showings—they're immersive experiences. She thoughtfully stages each event to help potential buyers envision their lives in these homes, using ambient decor, soft lighting, and carefully selected live music to create a welcoming atmosphere. Featuring local gourmet treats and interactive elements, Renata's approach brings listings to life, connecting buyers on an emotional level that makes her open houses truly memorable.

Beyond her role as a leading Realtor, Renata is a dedicated philanthropist with a strong commitment to her community. She actively supports a variety of causes, striving to make a positive impact in Calgary and beyond. Renata balances her career with a vibrant personal life as a devoted mother, fitness enthusiast, and adventurer. Her close-knit family and circle of friends reflect her warm personality and her passion for building genuine connections.

Renata's community spirit extends to her professional approach as well. Known for strengthening local networks and supporting neighborhood initiatives, she is a beloved figure in Calgary, recognized for her genuine involvement and support. As an avid dog lover, she often shares her enthusiasm with her community, embodying the joy and authenticity she brings to both her work and personal life.

For those ready to embark on their real estate journey with an experienced professional who prioritizes personalized service and genuine care, contact Renata Reid today. Whether one is buying, selling, or simply exploring Calgary's dynamic market, Renata is here to help turn a real estate dreams into reality.
