

Inc. and Syracuse University's D'Aniello Institute for Veterans and Military Families Unveil The 2025 Vet100 List

Annual Ranking Honors 100 Fastest-growing Veteran-Owned and Operated Businesses

SYRACUSE, NY, UNITED STATES, November 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inc. Business Media, in partnership with Syracuse University's D'Aniello Institute for Veterans and Military Families (IVMF), has announced the eighth annual Vet100 list—a compilation of the nation's fastest-growing veteran-owned-and-operated businesses. The ranking was born out of the iconic Inc. 5000 list of the fastest-growing private companies based in the United States. Both distinctions are considered hallmarks of entrepreneurial success.

"We are proud to partner with the D'Aniello Institute for Veterans and Military Families in recognizing these outstanding veteran leaders and the significant contributions they make to our economy and communities. Their success stories inspire us all and reaffirm the vital role veterans play in shaping the future of business in America," said Mike Hofman, Inc. editor-in-chief.

This year, 31 veteran-owned businesses have the distinction of making repeat appearances on the Vet100 list. The honorees employ more than 10,500 people throughout the country, and almost 25 percent of those businesses appearing on the Vet100 list are alumni of the IVMF's programs. This year's list also includes 17 female CEOs, whom IVMF supports through its Veteran Women Igniting the Spirit of Entrepreneurship (V-WISE) program.

"Veteran entrepreneurs apply leadership and management skills learned from their military service to fuel their business growth and benefit local communities," said Dr. Mike Haynie, Syracuse University Vice Chancellor as well as the Founder and Executive Director of the D'Aniello

IVMF. "These business owners are a critical component of the small business landscape, and we're excited to see IVMF program graduates recognized by Inc. Business Media, particularly those who are enjoying recurring placement on the Vet100 list. We appreciate Inc.'s ongoing commitment to highlighting these success stories. We all take pride in moments like these and we're grateful for the continued partnership with Inc. Business Media."

The 2025 Vet100 honorees will be formally recognized in March of 2025, during IVMF's Veteran EDGE Conference, which will take place in Dallas, Texas.
