

The Salvation Army of Broward County, Robert Craig Films and FLIFF proudly presents the World Premiere of 'No Address'

Be among the first to experience the powerful story of "No Address"

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, November 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Salvation Army of Broward County, in partnership with Robert Craig Films and the Fort Lauderdale

“

The No Address movie premiere is an extraordinary opportunity to shine a light on the often-overlooked challenges faced by individuals experiencing homelessness.”

Major Juan Guadalupe

International Film Festival (FLIFF), announces the World Premiere of "No Address" as the featured centerpiece of FLIFF's 39th Annual Festival. This compelling drama captures the journey of a group of individuals experiencing homelessness. The premiere will be on Wednesday, November 13, 2024, at the Savor Cinema in Fort Lauderdale. This powerful film will take center stage at one of South Florida's most prestigious cultural events, highlighting an important cause in collaboration with The Salvation Army's mission to support those in need.

Event Details:

6:30 PM – Dinner with live music

7:15 PM – No Address screening, followed by a Q&A at Savor Cinema

Post-Screening – Cocktails and desserts

Attendees can look forward to red-carpet appearances by directors, producers, and actors participating in Q&A discussions.

Tickets are $70 for FLIFF members and $85 for non-members, and 100% of the proceeds benefit The Salvation Army of Broward County. All funds raised will directly support vital programs and services that aid homeless individuals and underserved communities across Broward County.

Special Guests: The event will feature appearances by director Julia Verdin and key cast members Ty Pennington and Xander Berkeley

About No Address:

No Address is inspired by true events. This compelling drama captures the journey of a group of individuals experiencing homelessness. The film is a cinematic exploration of hope, humanity, and resilience as the characters navigate the stormy challenges of life with no physical address, showcasing the reality that homelessness can happen to anyone.

Directed by Julia Verdin, the film boasts an ensemble cast that includes Lucas Jade Zumann, Beverly D'Angelo, Isabella Ferreira, William Baldwin, Ty Pennington, Kristanna Loken, Xander Berkeley, Patricia Velasquez, and Ashanti.

How You Can Help:

Since 1926, The Salvation Army of Broward County has served as a vital resource for individuals and families in need. Proceeds from this premiere will directly support local programs focused on addressing homelessness, providing safe shelter, and delivering essential social services. By attending this event, you are helping to uplift and empower the most vulnerable members of our community. Join us in our mission to meet human needs without discrimination.

Tickets are available now at Fliff.com

For more information, contact Savor Cinema box office at 954-525-3456.

Salvation Army of Broward County's designated media contact:

Denisse Mollfulleda

denisse.mollfulleda@uss.salvationarmy.org

Direct: 954-770-7517

About The Salvation Army of Broward County

Since 1926, the Salvation Army of Broward County has provided essential services, including food assistance, shelter, and social programs, for individuals and families in need. The organization is dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty and homelessness, offering hope and pathways to self-sufficiency for vulnerable populations.

About Robert Craig Films

Headquartered in California, Robert Craig Films is dedicated to developing, creating, and producing films that encourage audiences to connect with greater empathy, compassion, and generosity within their communities. Robert Craig Films is strongly committed to addressing the

World Theatrical Premiere

HOMELESSNESS COULD HAPPEN TO ANYONE

WILLIAM BALDWIN BEVERLY D'ANGELO XANDER BERKELEY ASHANTI ISABELLA FERREIRA LUCAS JADE ZUMANN

A group of homeless people struggle to survive on the streets against a harassing gang, an unforgiving community, and the local authorities.

no address

Wednesday, November 13th

Pre-Screen Dining 6:30pm • Screening 7:00pm
SAVOR CINEMA • 503 SE 6th Street • Fort Lauderdale

Candlelight Party to follow

FOR TICKET INFORMATION PLEASE VISIT www.FLIFF.com

100% of Proceeds to benefit The Salvation Army of Broward County

Homelessness Could Happen To Anyone

pressing issue of homelessness. That's why the company has pledged to donate 50% of the net profits from its five No Address productions to over 1,000 organizations nationwide.

About Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival (FLIFF)

Established in 1986, the Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival (FLIFF) showcases over 150 American independent and international films each November. The festival also screens the latest American independent and international films daily at Broward County's only year-round arthouse theaters. This not-for-profit organization is recognized as one of the five Major Cultural Institutions by the Broward Cultural Council. It is among the highest-rated film festivals in Florida, according to the Florida Arts Council.

Denisse Mollfulleda

The Salvation Army of Broward County

+1 954-770-7517

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

X

LinkedIn

Instagram

YouTube

Other

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/758342824>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.