

Global Ascension Studios Highlights the Success and Impact of President Donald J. Trump Through Acclaimed Documentary

CEO Joshua Macciello Reflects on the Journey and Influence of "The Man You Don't Know," Reaching Over 50 Million Viewers

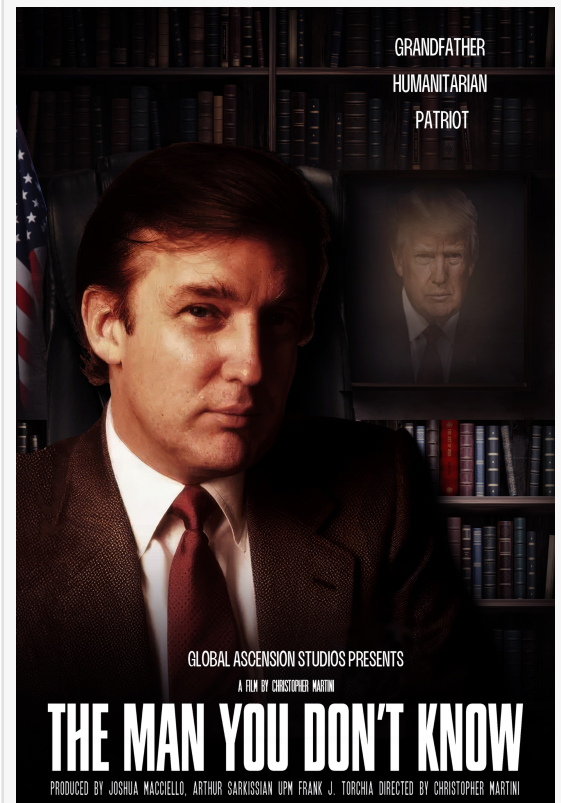

HENDERSON, NV, UNITED STATES, November 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Ascension Studios, led by CEO Joshua Macciello, celebrates the tremendous impact of its groundbreaking documentary, The Man You Don't Know, which offered a deeper look into the life and leadership of President Donald J. Trump. The documentary has resonated with over 50 million Americans, overcoming media challenges to share a compelling narrative.

"As the CEO of Global Ascension Studios, I am deeply honored and humbled to have been part of bringing The Man You Don't Know to audiences across America," said Macciello. "Producing this documentary was a profound journey, co-writing it with our brilliant director, Christopher Martini, and collaborating with an incredible team committed to telling a story often overlooked by mainstream media."

Despite challenges such as limited theater distribution and social media shadow bans, the documentary succeeded in its mission to present an authentic portrait of President Trump. Support from figures like Elon Musk, Ashley St. Clair, and Lynne Patton enabled the film to stream directly to millions, bypassing traditional barriers.

"We are immensely grateful to Elon Musk, Benny Johnson, and the team at X for helping us reach millions of viewers. This project is about more than just a film; it represents a commitment to free speech, resilience, and providing Americans with the truth," added Macciello.
