What Are The Major Factors Driving The Growth Of The Narcotics Scanner Market?

The rising number of drug users is significantly contributing to the growth of the market. The COVID-19 pandemic exacerbated poverty, unemployment, and mental health issues, intensifying addiction among users. Narcotics scanners are security devices used to detect drugs and hazardous substances. According to a report from the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), cannabis remains the most widely used drug, with about 219 million users globally in 2021. During the same period, 36 million individuals used amphetamines, and 22 million used cocaine, while approximately 60 million engaged in non-medical opioid use. Therefore, the continued increase in drug users is expected to drive the growth of the market.
