What Are The Primary Growth Drivers Of The Mobile Crushers and Screeners Market?

Rapid urbanization is anticipated to significantly boost the growth of the market in the near future. Urbanization refers to the process by which cities expand and a larger portion of the population migrates to urban areas. This swift urbanization has prompted governments to invest in infrastructure projects, including the construction of bridges, flyovers, housing developments, and railroads, thereby facilitating market growth in the construction and crushing machine sectors. For example, in 2021, data from the United Nations indicated that 56.61% of the global population resided in urban areas, a figure projected to rise to 68% by 2050. Consequently, rapid urbanization is a key driver of growth in the mobile crushers and screeners market.
