

Health Business Group Advises TT Capital Partners on Investment in Collaborating Docs

Innovative company matches nurse practitioners and supervising physicians

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES,
November 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Health Business Group, a leading healthcare strategy consulting and M&A advisory firm, is pleased to announce its role in providing commercial due diligence for TT Capital Partners' (TTCP) recent majority investment in Collaborating Docs, an innovative service that connects nurse practitioners with supervising physicians.

Collaborating Docs addresses a critical need in the healthcare sector by facilitating high-quality collaborations between nurse practitioners (NPs) and supervising physicians, a requirement for NPs to practice independently in 33 states. The company has built a robust network of 2,000 physicians and has successfully matched over 5,000 NPs and physician assistants with supervising physicians nationwide.

Collaborating Docs is uniquely positioned to meet the increasing demand for advanced practice providers. Health Business Group helped validate our conviction about the investment”

Ryan Engle, TTCP Partner

In this engagement, Health Business Group conducted a comprehensive assessment of Collaborating Docs' market potential, competitive positioning, and growth opportunities. The firm's primary data gathering and in-depth analysis provided TTCP with crucial insights to inform their investment decision.

“Collaborating Docs is uniquely positioned to meet the increasing demand for advanced practice providers,” said TTCP Partner Ryan Engle. “Health Business Group helped validate our conviction about the investment and opportunities for continued growth.”

“We are honored to have supported TT Capital Partners in this significant transaction,” said

David E. Williams, President of Health Business Group. "Our evaluation underscored Collaborating Docs' differentiation in enhancing healthcare access and compliance, and identified exciting avenues for future expansion."
