

Influent Introduces New Member Benefit Through Partnership with Resolve

Access to Comprehensive Contract Review and Compensation Data for Influent Members

SD, UNITED STATES, November 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Influent is excited to announce a new member benefit in collaboration with Resolve, an industry leader in physician contract review and employment data services.

Through this partnership, Influent members will have access to vital support for negotiating competitive employment contracts, whether they are launching their careers or reassessing existing agreements.

"This partnership is such a huge step for us in supporting healthcare professionals—giving them the tools and guidance they need to secure contracts that truly work for them," said Influent Vice President Bryce Curry. "It's all about helping doctors feel empowered, so they can focus on what they do best while thriving both in their careers and their personal lives."

Resolve is recognized for its expertise in physician employment contracts, focusing on optimizing compensation, promoting work-life balance, and protecting physicians from unexpected workplace changes. With Resolve's contract review and data-driven insights, Influent members can now secure fair, transparent, and personalized contracts, helping prevent job dissatisfaction and burnout. This partnership gives Influent members discounted access to Resolve's services.
