The final 16 players will qualify by the end of June through:

National Champions: Winners of VR tennis leagues from Austria, Switzerland, Germany, India, Australia, UK & Ireland, Canada, and the USA.

Tennis Esports Tour Top 8: The highest-ranked players from the global tour.

Currently, the top 8 ranked players represent six nationalities, including two players each from the USA and the UK, along with competitors from India, Japan, France, and Canada.

VR Tennis – A Growing Esports Phenomenon

VR tennis has seen explosive growth, with player participation rising from 35,467 to 256,840 over the past year. As the sport gains traction, eight countries have launched national VR tennis leagues, offering structured competition for aspiring champions.

The Esports Showdown in Las Vegas

The World Tennis Esports Championships will be hosted at The Space in Las Vegas, a premier venue for esports events. Fans worldwide can watch the action via live streaming, witnessing elite VR tennis players battle for the title.

The event is backed by major partners, including:

MGM Group, Sportradar, ÖTV Austrian Tennis Federation, AEL (Australian Esports League), First Coast Esports Alliance, GameForYou, NoScope Gaming

A Vision for Esports

The International Virtual Tennis Federation (IVTF) is dedicated to advancing competitive virtual sports. With its expanding global presence, IVTF aims to establish VR tennis as a premier esports discipline.
