

The Soldier and The Butterfly to Premiere at Oscar Qualifier St. Louis International Film Festival

ST. LOUIS, MO, UNITED STATES, November 8, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prepare to be captivated by a tale of love, war, and redemption as the highly anticipated film, "The Soldier and the Butterfly," directed by the visionary Stefano Da Frè, makes its world premiere at the prestigious St. Louis International Film Festival

Set against the haunting backdrop of World War II, "The Soldier and the Butterfly" weaves a poignant narrative of a Japanese soldier and a Korean sex worker whose lives intersect in the most unexpected of ways. This film promises to be a heart-wrenching exploration of humanity, resilience, and the transformative power of compassion.

Stefano Da Frè, along with his production company Rosso Films International and his top producer Laura Pellegrini are known for their compelling storytelling and cinematic vibrancy.

Stefano Da Fre brings to life a story that is both timeless and timely honoring the Korean Comfort women who endured so much hardship during World War II. With breathtaking cinematography and a powerful score, this film is set to leave an indelible mark on audiences worldwide.
