-- Blackleaf Organic Vodka, the first French organic vodka brand, has proudly earned the Platinum Medal at the 2024 New York World Spirits Competition, recognizing its unparalleled quality and commitment to excellence. This prestigious award is only granted to brands that achieve Double Gold recognition three consecutive years, an accolade reserved for spirits of exceptional quality and craftsmanship.

The Platinum Medal distinction underscores Blackleaf

Organic Vodka’s reputation as a leading name in premium organic spirits, crafted meticulously in France’s famed Cognac region. With distinct notes of spiced pear, nuts, and a hint of peppercorn, Blackleaf has garnered a loyal following and critical acclaim, setting itself apart with a refined “laid-back luxury” ethos.

“We are deeply honored to receive the Platinum Medal,” said Blackleaf founders Kevin Larkai and Monté Burrow. “This recognition is a testament to the dedication and passion our team pours into every bottle of Blackleaf. We are grateful to the New York World Spirits Competition for acknowledging our vision and commitment to creating a world-class organic vodka. We believe this award not only celebrates our product but also highlights our journey as pioneers in the spirits industry.”

The New York World Spirits Competition

Hosted by The Tasting Alliance, this competition is one of the most respected and influential events in the beverage industry, attracting top spirits from around the world. Blackleaf’s Platinum Medal solidifies its place among the highest echelons of craft vodka, as it continues to expand its presence and introduce more consumers to the unique flavor and premium quality of its award-winning organic vodka.
