"We're witnessing a pivotal moment where AI can fundamentally transform how we solve social impact challenges at scale," said Abhishek Humbad, CEO of Goodera. "This summit brings together the expertise and resources needed to make AI accessible to organizations driving social change."

Ursula Burns, former CEO of Xerox and current board member at Uber and TSMC, will join Arianna Huffington, founder of Thrive and Huffington Post, in the opening fireside chat, "AI's Moonshot: Technology that Transforms Lives." The five-hour summit has drawn registrations from all corners - CSR and HR leaders across major companies as well as non profit organizations across the world.

The event features practical sessions on AI implementation in impact investing, education, and climate action, including an AI 101 workshop led by RealizedWorth's Chris Jarvis and a nonprofit hackathon for building custom GPT applications. Additional speakers include United Nations ITU's Frederic Werner, Global Citizen Co-founder Michael Sheldrick, and Spero Ventures Founder Shripriya Mahesh.

The free virtual summit will run from 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM PST on November 13, 2024. For registration information, visit <https://www.goodera.com/pages/ai-for-impact>.
