Enters the 2025 Collegiate Volleyball Recruiting Class as a Standout Indoor and Beach Defensive Specialist

Brianna Eubank class of 2025 college volleyball recruit

Brianna Eubank, a libero and defensive specialist for Choctawhatchee High School, has officially joined the 2025 collegiate volleyball recruiting class, bringing her skills as both an indoor and beach volleyball player to the spotlight. Known for her exceptional court awareness, defensive precision, and versatility across playing surfaces, Eubank stands out as one of Florida's premier defensive talents in the 5A division.

Balancing her dedication to both indoor and beach volleyball, Eubank has proven herself as a dynamic player capable of excelling on hardwood and sand. Her agility and adaptability make her an invaluable asset on both courts, with seamless transitions between the two styles. She also competes with the Niceville Sharks Volleyball Club, where her on-court leadership and defensive instincts continue to set her apart as a team cornerstone.

Previously a key player at Destin High, Eubank transferred to Choctawhatchee High School to compete at a higher level, preparing herself for college recruitment. Her accolades include multiple selections to the Gulf Coast High Performance team, along with several "Player of the Week" and "Player of the Game" honors, underscoring her commitment to excellence and consistent performance.
