

Transforming Procurement: MavenVista Technologies Launches VENDX Genie

Get AI-Powered Powered Insights at Your Fingertips

AHEMDABAD, INDIA, November 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MavenVista Technologies announces the launch of VENDX Genie, an AI-driven solution set to enhance procurement strategy through advanced data insights and simplified access to critical information. Introduced at the UBS Procurement Seminar in New Delhi, VENDX Genie is now accessible to procurement teams worldwide.

VENDX Genie’s capabilities are aimed at transforming procurement workflows by providing intuitive data navigation and actionable insights. With a conversational interface, the platform enables users to ask questions directly and receive immediate, relevant answers on spend analytics, vendor comparisons, cost-saving strategies, and more.

VENDX Genie is more than a tool—it’s a strategic partner, empowering procurement teams to make data-informed decisions with ease. This launch reaffirms our commitment to innovation and efficiency.”

Suhrid Shah, CEO of MavenVista Technologies

Key Features of VENDX Genie Include:

Conversational Intelligence: Receive insights quickly through natural language queries.

Actionable Data: Support strategic procurement decisions with comprehensive, data-backed insights.

User-Friendly Design: Access and interpret complex procurement data with ease.

For those who missed the launch event, personalized demos of VENDX Genie are available upon request. For more details, contact MavenVista Technologies at sales@mavenvista.com.
