

Rusty Gear's New Single Turn My Engine Over Released to Country Radio

Rusty Receives CMA of Texas Duet of the Year for Lonely Roads featuring Evelyn Rubio

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, November 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Country-Americana singer songwriter and recording artist Rusty Gear has released his latest single "Turn My Engine Over" to country radio with submissions being managed by Nashville's Grass Roots Promotion. The new single, produced by noted Nashville producer Brad Hill, is an amusing up-tempo rejection of modern technology in the form of a self-driving electric truck.

The song immediately garnered over 150,000 streams on Spotify and the new video is now available on YouTube. The song is the title track of Rusty's latest EP which is comprised of six new Rusty Gear Country-Americana originals. In October, Rusty's "Lonely Roads" release featuring Evelyn Rubio won Duet of the Year at the CMA of Texas annual awards gala in Houston Texas.
