Sally Forster Jones, Co-Listing Agent

Constellation 167, 167 South Westgate Avenue, Los Angeles, California

Located at 167 South Westgate Avenue, Constellation 167 stands as an exceptional tribute to Eric Owen Moss' trailblazing design philosophy. Known for pushing the boundaries of modern architecture, the home embodies Moss' style, a tribute to geometry, nature, and bold design. A culmination of years of meticulous restoration and design, the home features striking, smooth concrete exterior angles that converge in a magnificent dome, creating an otherworldly visual experience. Inside, light flows effortlessly across terrazzo floors, burnished steel beams, and custom mahogany finishes, offering an environment of constant discovery and inspiration for its residents. The property features wide-plank oak and terrazzo flooring, museum-quality glass, radiant heat floors, and a custom glass and wood entryway that elevates the home's modern aesthetic.

The primary living spaces are open and airy, with a central living area highlighted by custom lighting, an impressive steel-surround fireplace, and a built-in entertainment center. The kitchen showcases custom hardwood cabinets, granite countertops, a Miele refrigerator, a Viking range with a galvanized steel hood, and a walk-in pantry, making it a blend of modern functionality and timeless style.

"Living in Constellation 167 is an invitation to experience life in a work of art," said de Longeville. "It harmoniously marries the innovative spirit of Moss' design with the comforts of modern living, all set against the vibrant backdrop of Los Angeles—a city known for its creativity and flair."

Additional amenities include a lower-level entertainment space, a basement bathroom with custom tile, an expansive built-in office, and a meticulously landscaped backyard with a custom pool and spa, complete with underwater speakers, Baja shelf, and jets for exercise. The outdoor space also features a Lynx grill, an outdoor fireplace, poured concrete seating, and palm and fruit trees that add a serene
