

'The Garden of Europe' Program: Promoting Sustainable Consumption of Eu Apples and Kiwis

NEW DELHI, INDIA, November 12, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Garden of Europe Program (2024-2027) is a significant initiative to promote sustainable consumption of European apples and kiwis. This program aims to enhance the quality and safety of these fruits while supporting the European agricultural sector. The program will focus on promoting sustainable farming practices, ensuring high standards of food safety, and increasing consumer awareness of the benefits of these fruits. The program will also support the development of new products and marketing strategies to increase the demand for European apples and kiwis. The program is expected to have a positive impact on the European agricultural sector and the global market for these fruits."
