The Stroke Monologues

Date: Thursday, November 21, 2024

Time: 7:00 PM

Location: Eisenhower Chapel @ The Lowry Foundation, 293 Roslyn Street, Denver, CO 80230

The Stroke Monologues is a powerful performance featuring a collection of monologues that express the diverse and profound experiences associated with stroke. This event highlights the emotional journey of rebuilding identity during recovery.

Tickets are priced at $35 per person. For those facing financial barriers, a limited number of free tickets are available. Interested parties should contact events@strokeonward.org for more information.

The Stroke Care Onward Gathering

Date: Tuesday, November 19, 2024

Time: 4:15 PM

Location: Clayton Early Learning, 3801 Martin Luther King Jr Blvd, Denver, CO 80205

This dynamic panel discussion brings together practitioners from various disciplines who serve stroke survivors and their care communities. The event focuses on critical aspects of post-acute stroke recovery, with particular emphasis on the emotional journey of rebuilding identity and exploring opportunities for systems change.

This is a free event, but attendees are kindly requested to RSVP to events@strokeonward.org.

Both events underscore Stroke Onward's commitment to promoting healing, resilience, and community support in the stroke recovery process. By bringing together survivors, caregivers, and healthcare professionals, these gatherings aim to address the emotional and psychological aspects of stroke recovery that are often overlooked.
