TOMAH, WI, UNITED STATES, November 12, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In "Buddy Moon: Lisa & Tom (City of Grove)", author Rhonda Boehm delivers an engaging romance set against the idyllic backdrop of Hawaii. The story follows two people from vastly different worlds, each on their journey of healing and self-acceptance, as they attempt to open their hearts to love while grappling with their pasts.

Tom Jeffreys, a successful architect from the city, is done with one-night flings and is now in search of true love. When he travels to Hawaii as the best man in his friend Mason's wedding, he finds himself on a "Buddy Moon," a group honeymoon with other couples, and meets Lisa Collins. A small-town artist fighting to break into the art world, Lisa's guarded demeanor stems from a painful history that makes her wary of love. But Tom, with his own hidden scars, piques her curiosity and ignites an attraction that grows despite her hesitations.

As their connection deepens, Tom and Lisa struggle with their insecurities and the question of whether they can be vulnerable enough to share their pasts—and whether doing so could lead them to a future together. Buddy Moon captivates readers with its blend of romance, redemption, and the promise of new beginnings, even as it introduces an ensemble of unforgettable characters whose stories will continue in future novels.
