

PayToMe.co and Boundarie.org Partner to Advance Global Education and Financial Inclusion

The groundbreaking partnership makes college mentorship accessible and empowers nonprofits with fintech solutions.

SILICON VALLEY, CA, UNITED STATES,
November 12, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- PayToMe.co, an award-winning AI-driven fintech marketplace and top 1% global startup through Startupbootcamp, has announced an innovative partnership with Boundarie.org, a nonprofit organization supported by Microsoft for Startups, Google for Startups, and Applied Materials. Founded by high school students, Boundarie.org is revolutionizing college mentorship by making it accessible and affordable for students worldwide. Responding to the high costs of traditional college counseling, these visionary founders created a peer-driven platform that has already reached 30 million views and 1.8 million likes on social media in less than six months.

Through PayToMe.co secure, scalable solutions, we're creating sustainable pathways for students to access education globally.”

Worldwide, 570 million secondary school students lack access to college mentorship, including 130 million girls who are out of school and 14.8 million students in refugee camps where formal education is often inaccessible.

Through this partnership, PayToMe.co enables Boundarie.org to expand its impact by providing essential financial technology for managing donations, fundraising, and expenses-allowing the Boundarie.org team to focus on its mission of educational accessibility.

Supporting the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Aligned with UN Sustainable Development Goals-Goal 4: Quality Education and Goal 8: Decent Work and Economic Growth—the partnership combines PayToMe.co’s fintech with Boundarie.org’s mentorship to drive global educational and financial inclusion.

Empowering Nonprofits to Focus on Their Mission

With over 10 million nonprofits organizations worldwide, many face challenges in secure payment processing, donation management, and expense tracking. PayToMe.co’s patented Text-to-Pay and digital invoicing solutions address these needs, offering Boundarie.org complimentary access to its platform for operational support. This arrangement allows nonprofits to focus resources directly on their impact-driven initiatives.

Celebrating Youth Leadership and Social Entrepreneurship

Boundarie.org’s high school founders exemplify the entrepreneurial spirit and leadership that can drive social change. Their platform, inspired by their own experiences, offers a sustainable model for youth-led initiatives addressing global challenges, encouraging young leaders worldwide to pursue impactful projects that benefit society.

Leadership Commentary

“Partnering with Boundarie.org allows PayToMe.co to be a catalyst for social impact, showing how fintech can support youth-led organizations,” said Mike Ulker, CEO of PayToMe.co. “Through our secure, scalable solutions, we’re creating sustainable pathways for students to access education globally.”
