

Bradenton, FL Takes Procurement to the Next Level with OpenGov

BRADENTON, FL, UNITED STATES, November 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After working under archaic processes and limited vendor engagement, leadership in the City of Bradenton, FL sought a new procurement solution to streamline their operations and broaden its vendor pool. They found an ideal partner in OpenGov, recognized for its user-friendly, transformative procurement capabilities.

Bradenton staff struggled with old templates and reworking scopes for submitted proposals, creating inefficiencies in its procurement process. In their search for an upgraded solution, leadership prioritized features like automation, centralized contract management, and enhanced vendor engagement. OpenGov Procurement stood out for its innovative technology and commitment to delivering a flexible, cost-effective solution.

With the implementation of OpenGov Procurement, the City of Bradenton anticipates a positive shift in its procurement operations. The City expects enhanced interdepartmental collaboration and a more centralized approach to managing contracts, allowing for seamless communication across departments. Additionally, with automated solicitation development and improved vendor engagement, Bradenton aims to achieve a greater return on investment for capital projects, ultimately benefiting the entire community.

The City of Bradenton joins more than 1,900 public sector organizations leveraging OpenGov to revolutionize work processes with cloud-based software designed specifically for the needs of government.
