

McClure Films Announces 2nd Unit Preliminary Filming for 'EthanAlmighty,' December 5th 2024, Bardstown, Kentucky

A true story about a dog and his owner who changed animal cruelty laws.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, November 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- McClure Films is pleased to announce 2nd unit preliminary filming for upcoming feature, "EthanAlmighty - the Movie." The filming, December 5th, will take place at the annual Bardstown Kiwanis Christmas parade in Bardstown, Kentucky, where the famous canine EthanAlmighty and his poppa Jeff Callaway are serving as Grand Marshals. They are known nationally for raising awareness about abused and neglected animals.

"EthanAlmighty – the movie," is a dramatic faith based true story of a courageous dog that survived unspeakable odds and brought the entire state of Kentucky together as they prayed for his recovery. Inspired by his strength to live, every person who knows Ethan's story and has followed his journey, had life changing events for the better. With his forgiveness and heart, EthanAlmighty, in turn, inspired the state of Kentucky to enact the Anti-torture/Cruelty to Animals Bill known as Ethan's Law in March 2024.

Star casting for lead actors has begun with Linda Berger, CSA. Current talks are ongoing with key star names for the role of Jeff Callaway. Principal photography is scheduled for spring of 2025 in Bardstown, Kentucky.

The screenplay, based on the true story as told by Jeff Callaway and EthanAlmighty, is written by Tané McClure and Tyke Caravelli. McClure is also set to direct. "I am honored to bring the story of EthanAlmighty to the screen. As an animal lover, Ethan's story truly hit me. He went through unspeakable odds, yet the uplifting story that surrounds him, is sure to bring happy tears to the world." This is McClure's follow up feature, after last years' multi-award
