"This celebration represents more than just a new facility – it's a testament to our industry's resilience," said Rhiannon Andersen, Chief Marketing Officer at Steelhead Productions. "It's not lost on anybody how hard the trade show and events industry was hit during COVID. To have our industry rebound from that and then companies not just recover, but recover and grow, is something that should be celebrated by everybody who witnessed and experienced the hardships of 2020 and 2021."

The grand opening featured an engaging keynote by award-winning leadership expert Renie Cavallari on "Awaken Your Potential and Dump the HEADTRASH," alongside facility tours showcasing Steelhead's innovative workspace and sustainable event solutions. The evening highlighted Steelhead's industry contributions and its deep commitment to the Las Vegas community through the Give Happy Committee and Give Happy Foundation initiatives.

This expansion marks Steelhead's third facility in Las Vegas, reflecting the company's continuous growth and dedication to supporting event planners with cutting-edge solutions. The new
