VAN ZANT

Van Zant, made up of .38 Special co-founder Donnie Van Zant and Lynnyrd Skynyrd frontman Johnny Van Zant, has reunited and returned to the studio for what will be their first new album in nearly two decades. Always Look Up will also mark the duo's first foray into Christian music, while holding firm to their southern rock roots.

"As Christians our job is to go out and to shout to the world with God's truth," says Donnie. "We've actually got a song on the album called 'Warrior' and the song reminds us that, as Christians, we need to fight for the Godly kingdom cause we have Satan and he's there like a lion on a prowl, always trying to cause complete havoc. We need to be very vigilant, constantly aware and be warriors for God's work."

Van Zant previously released music videos for new tracks "Speak His Name" and "There You Are," and a lyric video for "Jesus Christ."
