

New Quest Announced at 'Dragon Quest Island' Attraction in Anime Park 'Nijigen no Mori'

Quest announced as Part 1 of "Dragon Quest III HD-2D Remake" collaboration event, starting November 16

AWAJI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE, JAPAN, November 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anime park Nijigen no Mori (located within Hyogo Prefectural Awaji Island Park) has announced that its popular attraction "Dragon Quest Island: The Great Demon Lord Zoma and the First Island" will be holding a collaboration event to celebrate the release of video game "Dragon Quest III HD-2D Remake" (original title: "Dragon Quest III: The Seeds of Salvation"). Part 1 of the collaboration event, "Class Diagnosis Quest: Find Your Destiny!", will be held from November 16th, 2024 to April 20th, 2025.

The event allows guests to divine their adventurer class in the fantasy world of "Alefgard" from the game, a world separate from Dragon Quest Island. Adventurers answer several questions to undergo a diagnosis of the class that best suits them, and will receive an original design sticker according to their results.

Additionally, various original decorations and panels will be installed within the attraction to

□Overview: "Dragon Quest Island: The Great Demon Lord Zoma and the First Island"
Dragon Quest Island is a field RPG attraction that brings the world of the "Dragon Quest" video games to life through digital and physical means. Attraction participants become the heroes of their own quests, following an original storyline and embarking on an adventure through the world of Dragon Quest. "Dragon Quest Island: The Great Demon Lord Zoma and the First Island" held a renewal opening on Saturday, October 5th, 2024, reviving its popular original quests from 2021 in commemoration of the release of the "Dragon Quest III HD-2D Remake". The attraction also includes subquests and original food and merchandise based on the worlds of the Erdrick Trilogy (known in Japan as "Loto Trilogy").
