This cutting-edge machine is designed to enhance precision digital die cutting for a wide range of industries, including printing, packaging and signage.

CUTWORX USA Eclipse 3547 Cutter

The Eclipse 3547 is a versatile sheet-fed flatbed cutting system that eliminates the need for traditional dies, offering unparalleled flexibility and efficiency. With its ability to process a variety of materials, including corrugated board, paper, foam, PVC and more, the Eclipse 3547 is a cost-effective solution for custom shape contour cutting, sample making, prototyping and packaging.

The Eclipse 3547 is a game-changer for businesses looking to streamline their production processes and deliver high-quality, custom-cut products.”

Queintin Edwards

Key features of the Eclipse 3547 include:

-No Cutting Dies Required: The Eclipse 3547 features five integrated tool positions, allowing for versatile processing of materials using a variety of tools, including the Universal Cutting Tool, Electric Oscillating Tool, Drag Knife, Kiss-Cut Tool and Creasing Wheel.

-High Precision Vision Registration System: Equipped with a high-definition CCD camera, the Eclipse can automatically and accurately carry out contour cutting on a range of printed materials, eliminating the need for manual positioning.

-Versatile Software Suite: The Eclipse Software Suite offers a user-friendly interface for file preparation in various formats, including PDF, PLT, DXF and HP/GL.

-Automated Features: The Eclipse 3547 includes an automatic sheet loading system and an optional roll feed attachment, streamlining the cutting process and increasing productivity.

-Exceptional Precision and Quality: The Eclipse 3547 delivers exceptional precision and quality, ensuring accurate cuts every time.

The Eclipse 3547 is ideal for businesses seeking to:

- Increase productivity and efficiency
- Reduce material waste and costs
- Produce high-quality, custom-cut products
- Expand their range of offerings.

According to Quentin Edwards, CUTWORX Product Manager, "The Eclipse 3547 is a game-changer for businesses looking to streamline their production processes and deliver high-quality, custom-cut products."
