EINPresswire.com/ -- Aspyre Agency, a leading Marketing and Sales firm, has proudly announced a generous donation to the Old Bridge Animal Shelter, a nonprofit organization dedicated to rescuing and caring for local homeless and abandoned animals. The donation, which includes pounds of dry food, collars, training pads, cases of wet food, toys, and treats, will provide much-needed support to the shelter's ongoing efforts to care for the animals in its care.

“We are continuously looking for ways to give back to our community in some way. With the amount of pets we have in our business, we thought it would be perfect to give back to the ones who don’t yet have a home.” said Alexander Birnbach, CEO of Aspyre Agency. “As a company, we know how the holidays are all about giving and we wanted to give back to our community during a time of triumph. We may not be able to give those precious animals a home at this moment, but we want to keep their bellies full and their hearts full of joy until they can find their fur-ever homes!”

The donation is part of Aspyre Agency's ongoing commitment to social responsibility and community engagement. In addition to its business operations, Aspyre Agency is continuously

Aspyre Agency encourages others in the community to consider supporting local shelters and animal welfare organizations through donations, volunteering, or spreading awareness.
