EINPresswire.com/ -- Highland Village is kicking off the holiday season with their 3rd annual Holiday Stroll event and two shops that will open for this holiday season. This year's Holiday Stroll will take place Saturday, November 16th from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. The Holiday Stroll will feature a variety of festive activities for the entire family.

Children can experience the magic of the season with a special visit to Santa Claus. Adults can enjoy festive cocktails and live music while browsing the latest holiday decor, gifts and fashion offered by the merchants of Highland Village. This event is free and open to the public.

"The Holiday Stroll has been a great way to kick off the holiday season the past two years," said Arielle Weston, Director, Asset Strategy & Experience. "We're eagerly anticipating the opportunity to once again celebrate with our Highland Village family and wonderful community. We're also delighted to welcome Providence Art Reserve and welcome back Wren & Ivy to Highland Village this holiday season, and we know our guests will love them just as much as we do."

For the holiday season, Providence Art Reserve, known for its curated collection of affordable fine art, and Wren & Ivy, a provider of high-end sporting and travel gear, have joined the Highland Village Family. Providence Art Reserve offers a variety of fine art pieces at an affordable price.
