New artists and their works are regularly circulated every few weeks at both Barlow Gallery locations, in addition to all art being displayed in a robust online gallery at barlowgallery.com. Featuring rich profiles for each artist, the virtual gallery is designed to excite art lovers, encourage new collectors, and inspire people and the spaces where they live and work.

Owners Ron Stevenson and Rachel René have created welcoming spaces where purchasing art and supporting artists is affordable and customizable. In addition to offering original artworks, Barlow Gallery enables the highest quality digital reproductions and giclée prints to be created in any size from any painting or photograph in inventory, on materials including paper, metal, acrylic, canvas, glass, or wood.

Hotel Murano is the Northwest's premier art-filled hotel, conveniently located next to the Tacoma Convention Center, and walking distance to the Tacoma Art Museum and world-class Museum of Glass with its breathtaking Chihuly Bridge of Glass. The extensive meeting spaces throughout the facility will enable Barlow Gallery to regularly hold new and larger events featuring new art and new artists.
