WILMINGTON, NC, UNITED STATES, November 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Melissa Tyson, a talented artisan engagement ring designer from the small beach town of Wilmington, NC, is set to make her fourth appearance at Milan Fashion Week in 2025. Known for her unique and organic style, Tyson's hammered halo engagement rings have become a favorite among free-spirited couples looking for a touch of adventure in their jewelry.

Tyson's journey to Milan Fashion Week began in her hometown of Wilmington, 25 years ago, where she first discovered her passion for creating one-of-a-kind engagement rings out of recycled gold and ethically sourced diamonds. Her love for the beach and nature is reflected in her organic ring designs, which exude a wild and free aesthetic. Her rings are not just pieces of jewelry, but works of art like tiny sculptures for your hand, capturing the essence of adventure and romance.

This will be Tyson's fourth time showcasing her fine jewelry collection on the runway at Milan Fashion Week, and she is excited to reveal her newest collection to the world wide fashion community. Her signature hammered halo engagement rings will once again take center stage, but this time with a fresh and modern twist. Tyson's latest collection featuring salt and pepper diamonds, elongated hexagon engagement rings and east west diamond settings make her rings stand out from the crowd for the prestigious fashion event.
