EINPresswire.com/ -- Maureen Anne Meehan writes interesting narratives and engaging characters in her diverse range of novels. Within her works are themes of mystery, endurance, and self-growth. Set in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, a Mary MacIntosh Novel Series includes gripping titles like Dying to Ski, Snake River Secret, Pandemic Predator, Poisoned by Proxy, Powder River Poison, The Five, Rodeo, Deputy Dawg or D.B. Cooper, Pumpkin Buttes, Prison Break, Red Hands, Dating Game, and the upcoming Tooth Fairy Killer. The series tells the story of brilliant attorney Mary MacIntosh who deals with intricate legal puzzles. Each novel combines suspense, intrigue, and unexpected twists, revealing crime and treachery hidden behind the façade of tranquil communities.

In "60 Dates in Six Months \(with a Broken Neck\)," Meehan leads readers through one amazing journey that involves endurance and tenacity. After suffering from a terrible accident that left her with a broken neck, Meehan began a personal project for discovering love and meaning amidst a whirlwind of 60 dates within six months only. This motivating memoir covers both her physical as well as emotional recovery while also exposing modern dating in its rawness through candidness and humor.

Another stunning book by Maureen Anne Meehan is entitled "Push You Away." The author exquisitely delves into human love relationships beneath their surface—exploring how such love may lead to pain would elicit more than a smile but tears instead. With indelible slant sarcasm, she manages tonality shifts that capture different aspects of sadness associated with heartbreaks juxtaposed onto joyful moments spent together until too late revelations about who loved whom best or worst among them all are pulled off here, which makes it hard not to cry sometimes since almost all have been there before, each time hearts open again, knowing full well what could happen next, if ever!

Adding to Meehan's dating series is the latest sequel, "Let Me Be." The author highlights the frustrations of others experiencing rejection while trying to find love. It demonstrates the challenges and difficulties one faces on dating apps due to the unanimity and ability to post ancient pictures that misrepresent what a person looks like presently and/or other misrepresentations of careers or other personal goals and aspirations.

Meehan's prose suggests a sharp perception of people and a firm conviction in the strength of one's will to survive. Major online retailers and some brick-and-mortar stores hold a stock of her books.
