LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM,
November 15, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- RECORD-BREAKING FILM & TV MEMORABILIA EXCEEDS $6.8 MILLION IN LONDON AUCTION

THE MOST EXPENSIVE HARRY POTTER PROP SOLD AT AUCTION

In one of the world's largest entertainment memorabilia auctions, Propstore has once again proven itself as one of the industry's leaders, with rare film & TV treasures fetching over $6.8 million on the first day of its four-day annual live auction at BAFTA 195 Piccadilly in London.

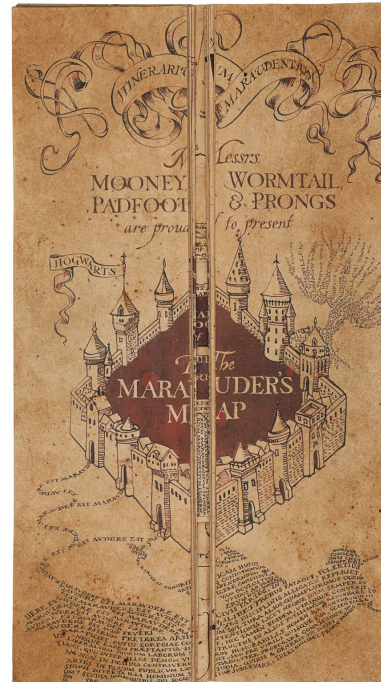

Standout lots from the sale include:

A Screen-Matched Sandtrooper Helmet from the iconic "Move Along, Move Along" scene in STAR WARS: A NEW HOPE (1977) sold for a mind-bending $409,500.

The Marauder's Map from the HARRY POTTER SERIES (2001 - 2011) sold for an incredible $299,250. This extraordinary lot was owned by David Holmes, Daniel Radcliffe's stunt double, who suffered a life-altering injury while working on the series. Proceeds from the sale of this lot will support Holmes' ongoing care, funding vital mobility equipment and personal care.

Propstore – one of the world's leading Entertainment Memorabilia Auctioneers, has today

Stephen Lane, Founder and CEO of Propstore, commented: "The opening day of Propstore's auction has been nothing short of phenomenal. Many items achieved unprecedented prices, particularly from iconic franchises like Star Wars and Harry Potter. This auction has been especially meaningful, with David Holmes joining us in the room to introduce the incredible Marauder's Map, which has broken a world-record for the most expensive Harry Potter prop sold at auction. With more incredible items set to go under the hammer over the next 3 days, we invite collectors and fans worldwide to participate in this unforgettable event."

About Propstore

In 1998, Propstore founder Stephen Lane's love for movies led him to hunt for the same props and costumes used to create his favorite films. He found that he could provide collectors with access to their most coveted pieces and establish archival standards for this new, pop-culture hybrid of fine art and memorabilia collecting—prop art.

Since 2014, Propstore has regularly hosted live auctions featuring some of the world's greatest Entertainment Memorabilia treasures. Propstore specializes in film and television props and costumes, production materials, and artwork, as well as music memorabilia, posters, and collectible toys. Propstore also holds regular online auctions in association with many of the industry's major production materials and has over 5,000 items available for sale via Buy Now on www.propstore.com.

Following our 2020 Queen's Award for Enterprise in International Trade, Propstore was thrilled to receive the honor again in 2024, this time as the prestigious King's Award for Enterprise. Widely regarded as the highest accolade for business success in the UK, the King's Award for Enterprise recognizes British companies that have excelled in innovation, international trade, sustainable development, and promoting opportunity through social mobility.
