

Springfree Trampoline Announces Exclusive Trampoline Bundles at Costco Ahead of the Holiday Season

Costco Shoppers Can Now Access the Springfree Trampoline Bundles Online Nationwide

MARKHAM, ONTARIO, CANADA,
November 21, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Holiday shoppers, gear up: Costco has reintroduced trampolines to its product line-up after a long hiatus, launching two exclusive Springfree Trampoline bundles in Canada just in time for the gift-giving season.

The new All Black Springfree Trampoline Jumbo Round bundle, the largest round trampoline in Springfree's lineup, is now available, exclusively, for purchase on Costco's website.

Also available for purchase is the All Black Springfree Trampoline Medium Round bundle, which is ideal for families that would rather have a mid-sized trampoline that still offers plenty of room to jump.

Both bundles come with a ladder for easy access into the trampoline and a basketball hoop for added fun.

Costco members can take advantage of special value pricing and secure the best deal for these trampoline sizes.

Springfree Trampoline returns to Costco, expanding its reach in the premium outdoor recreation market. Now available online, Springfree will also debut in select Costco warehouses just in time for the holidays.

So, if you're a parent or grandparent looking for a holiday gift for kids, a Springfree Trampoline bundle offers a thoughtful, long-lasting gift that encourages active play.

"These exclusive Costco trampoline bundles provide families with a truly premium gift option that's both fun and built to last through all seasons, even Canadian winters," said Amy McIntee, Chief Operating Officer at goba Sports Group, the parent company of Springfree Trampoline.

"Our goal is to make our safety-first trampolines readily available for families looking for reliable outdoor play equipment for their children. A Springfree Trampoline provides endless opportunities for engaging outdoor activity that promotes health, wellness, and joyful family moments for years to come."

Like all Springfree Trampolines, the Jumbo Round and Medium Round are equipped with industry-leading safety features including a springless design, flexible enclosure system and no hard edges -- backed by a 10-year warranty on all parts.

You can purchase professional installation with the Springfree Trampoline bundles (details in the Costco product box) or use the free BILT app for 3D, step-by-step instructions if self-assembling.

In addition to the Costco bundles, Springfree Trampoline offers a variety of other trampoline sizes and accessories on its website.
