I hope The Christmas Sessions: Season's Greetings from Studio 2 brings joy to your celebrations and becomes a cherished part of your holiday traditions for years to come.”

Ed Bazel

magic begin! Ed Bazel's latest instrumental piano album, The Christmas Sessions: Season's Greetings from Studio 2, is here to fill your season with warmth, joy, and unforgettable memories. This festive collection is a heartwarming blend of timeless carols and an enchanting original composition, “Christmas Time Is Coming,” perfectly crafted to spark nostalgia and create new traditions.

Ring in the season today with music that evokes all the warmth of home: Listen here

Bazel invites his fans to share in the wonder of this joyful season, saying "Christmas is a time to treasure togetherness, and I'm honored to share this music with you. Recording The Christmas Sessions at Abbey Road's legendary Studio 2—where The Beatles made history—was a dream come true. The magic of that space lives in every note, adding an extra sprinkle of holiday spirit to this album.”

This subtly nostalgic album brings together a team of extraordinary musical talents:

Composer: Ed Bazel

Producer: Alex Carter

String and Wind Arrangements: Louis Anthony deLise

Featured Artists:

Flute: John McMurtery

Cello: Vivian Barton Dozor

Violin: Nina Vieru

Mallet Percussion: Louis Anthony deLise (Tracks 1, 5, 11) and Alex Carter (Track 6)

The standout original track, "Christmas Time Is Coming," blends the bittersweet tones of winter blues with the comforting joy of the season. Other highlights include a stunning rendition of the classic "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" and a moving take on "We Three Kings," closing the album with timeless grace. This collection isn't just music—it's an invitation to reflect, give, and share kindness, not only during the holidays but all year long.

About Ed Bazel

Known for his soul-stirring piano compositions, Bazel's music blends elegance and emotion. His independently produced albums—Bella Piano (2013),
