Stress Less During Holiday Preparation.

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, November 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The holidays are a wonderful, joyful time of year. The catch: the prep work. The average family spends 6 weeks preparing for the holidays. This amount of time can cause stress and exhaustion especially for hosts and hostesses. 63% of people report that the holidays cause even more stress than tax season. In addition, with warmer temperatures that are expected to continue, experts predict a surge in pests this fall and winter as flea, tick and mosquito populations remain active through the season.

To help ease holiday preparation stress, Wondercide is launching three new holiday kits at 40% off. The kits offer great gift ideas and protect people, pets and home from bugs with a fresh peppermint scent, allowing families to fully embrace the season.
