CJ Fam's "World Without Christmas"

CJ is at heart a songwriter and composer. From ballads to powerhouses, CJ writes from the soul and draws from past experiences to create music that allows her to look within herself and develop further as an artist. CJ's style has evolved into a unique fusion between Indie rock , pop, and soul as she looks forward to releasing her next project.

What a great song! It was a blast to be a part of it!"

*John Pineiro, Producer/Owner
Perfect Image Recording*

CJ has released her debut album early March of 2019. Since then, she has been racking up streams and growing her fan base. She now spends most of her time in Nashville, Tennessee where she attends the highly acclaimed Belmont University for Songwriting. She has been performing everywhere possible, from places right on Broadway, to national stages across the country.

At her young age, CJ has already flourished in her passion for music from performing in hit theatrical productions such as Broadway's The Sound of Music to performing as lead vocalist in Cirque Broadway Dreams by Cirque de Soleil. She has also won various solo vocalist and Thespian awards in her home state of Florida and even competed as a season finalist in season 3 of the hit competition, The X Factor. These events have prepared her to take over the music industry as she pursues her music.
