DATE	24TH & 25TH FEBRUARY 2025
VENUE	CROWNE PLAZA DUBAI - DEIRA

Rex Fuels Global Expo & Conference 2025

Advancing Sustainable Solutions in Bitumen, Petrochemicals, and Petroproducts: With a focus on the urgent need for eco-friendly practices, the Rex Fuels Global Expo & Conference 2025 will spotlight advancements that are setting new standards for the industry. Featured technologies include Reclaimed Asphalt Pavement (RAP), low-temperature bitumen, and Polymer Modified Bitumen (PMB) — solutions designed to reduce emissions, conserve energy, and minimize waste in bitumen production. These innovations are paving the way for more durable infrastructure while lessening the environmental impact of construction projects.

Attendees will explore:

- Emerging Bitumen Technologies: RAP, low-temperature bitumen, and PMB demonstrate how sustainable approaches can meet high-performance demands in road construction, enhance material durability, and reduce energy consumption.

- Eco-friendly Petrochemical Processes: Discover advancements that improve production efficiency, lower emissions, and promote resource recovery in petrochemical processing.
- Petroproducts Innovations: From fuels to specialty products, see how manufacturers are integrating sustainability into product design, creating petroproducts that align with evolving environmental regulations and performance standards.

Why Attend?

This conference offers an unparalleled opportunity for professionals in the bitumen, petrochemical, and petroproducts sectors to:

- Gain Insights into Cutting-Edge Technologies: Learn about sustainable production methods that reclaim resources, minimize emissions, and extend the lifespan of materials, ensuring a more eco-conscious industry.
- Explore Durable Solutions for Infrastructure: Understand how advanced additives and modified bitumen can improve road longevity, decrease maintenance needs, and reduce the lifecycle cost of projects.
- Collaborate with Industry Leaders: Connect with over 400 experts, innovators, and policymakers, all driven to push the boundaries of sustainable solutions in the bitumen, petrochemical, and petroproducts fields.

Hosted by Industry Experts
