GlobalLogic named a leader in Generative AI Services by ISG Provider Lens™

The ISG report highlights the rapid expansion of the GenAI market and the urgent need for enterprises to invest in these technologies to maintain a competitive edge. GlobalLogic is uniquely positioned to help businesses navigate this rapidly evolving landscape, leveraging its deep experience and expertise at the intersection of data, design, and engineering. The first-of-its-kind 'Platform-of-Platforms' architecture, developed by GlobalLogic, enables the seamless deployment of enterprise-grade AI technologies across diverse industries.

GlobalLogic was recognized as a Leader in two key areas:

Strategy and Consulting Services

GlobalLogic's comprehensive consulting services guide businesses through every stage of GenAI implementation, taking a problem-first approach to identify and prioritize high-impact, feasible use cases and sequence them into an agile, iterative AI roadmap. The company's Responsible AI Framework emphasizes security, transparency, and accountability throughout the AI journey.

“The Platform-of-Platforms architecture and robust GenAI frameworks, developed by GlobalLogic, deliver high-quality, adaptable AI solutions. Its extensive domain expertise and holistic service offerings enable it to address diverse client needs effectively,” said Gowtham Sampath, Assistant Director and Principal Analyst at ISG.

Development and Deployment Services

GlobalLogic's end-to-end GenAI expertise, including strong Data and LLM Training capabilities, domain and industry solutions, combined with the robust "Platform-of-Platforms" architecture, developed by GlobalLogic, enables seamless integration of leading AI models and algorithms across cloud and on-premises environments. This ensures businesses can adopt cutting-edge AI while maintaining critical security and governance.

“GlobalLogic empowers enterprises with tailored AI and GenAI solutions, offered through a responsible AI framework and strategic partnerships with hyperscalers, delivering a flexible, cloud-agnostic platform to enable clients to scale AI innovations securely,” said Sampath.

"This recognition validates our commitment to empowering businesses with tailored GenAI solutions," said Yuriy Yuzifovich, Chief Technology Officer of AI at GlobalLogic. "We're helping companies integrate intelligence into their products, platforms, and systems, driving innovation and operational efficiency."
