Empower your business! Join The Liquidity Event on Nov 21 in Jacksonville to learn SBA resources, disaster recovery, and growth strategies. Register now!

JACKSONVILLE, FL, UNITED STATES, November 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Entrepreneurs and small business owners gathered at Maggiano's in Jacksonville for The Liquidity Event sponsored by Insurance Claim HQ, a dynamic seminar featuring Jonel Hein, District Director of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) North Florida District Office. With a focus on business growth, disaster recovery, and government support, Hein captivated attendees with insights drawn from her 33 years of service.

Organized to empower and educate, The Liquidity Event addressed the SBA's four pillars: consulting, financing, government contracting, and crisis recovery. Hein outlined vital resources, including the SBA's Thrive program—an accelerator for small businesses—and shared impactful updates on disaster recovery loans for businesses and nonprofits affected by recent Florida storms.

Attendees were introduced to opportunities such as SBA-backed loans, mentorship programs, and the Florida Emergency Bridge Loan Program. Hein emphasized, "Our goal is to provide small business owners with the tools they need to thrive. Whether through free consulting, financial assistance, or crisis recovery programs, the SBA is here to help."

Event Highlights

Thrive Program: A six-month business accelerator offering strategies for scaling and sustaining businesses.

Disaster Recovery Support: Loans up to $2 million for physical and economic losses, as well as additional resources for homeowners and renters.

Jonel Hein District Director for the U.S. Small Business Administration North Florida District Office

Government Contracting Opportunities: Certification programs to support small businesses in securing government contracts.

Randolph, the event's host, noted,
"Jonel Hein's wealth of knowledge and responsiveness is unmatched. Her advice and the SBA's resources have the power to transform businesses in our community."
