CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES,

November 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jackrabbit Care, the most innovative software solution for child care center management, wraps up a successful 2024, marked by product innovation, thought leadership, and expanded visibility in the child care industry. Jackrabbit Care exhibited at 10 industry conferences nationwide and was selected to present at four, sharing insights on enhancing child care operations, effective guardian communication, and business growth.

We are proud to have been recognized across the child care industry for our innovative solutions and commitment to streamlining operations.”

Tracy Egan, Chief Product Officer

Throughout the year, Jackrabbit Care released new features that help streamline child care centers' daily operations, improve communication between staff and guardians, and provide robust analytics for business growth. Notable enhancements to the software include:

Online Registration – Simplifies the enrollment process for parents and administrators, making onboarding faster and more accessible.

Reporting Tools – Provides detailed analytics for informed decision-making, helping child care centers identify trends, optimize resources, and enhance business performance.

Staff mobile app – A new tool designed to improve child care staff's experience by making essential resources easily accessible from their mobile devices.

Parent mobile app – Increases engagement by keeping parents informed and connected with real-time updates on their child's day-to-day activities.

"We are proud to have been recognized across the child care industry for our innovative solutions and commitment to streamlining operations," said Tracy Egan, Chief Product Officer at Jackrabbit Technologies. "Each feature we've introduced this year focuses on improving the child care experience for everyone involved—from owners to staff to families."

Gwendolynn St. Pierre, Group Product Manager at Jackrabbit Technologies added, "Our development team has worked closely with clients to create meaningful tools that truly impact how child care centers operate. From enhancing efficiency to simplifying registration, we are helping businesses run more smoothly."

Accompanying the launch of these new features, Jackrabbit Care's commitment to thought leadership is stronger than ever. With presentations at industry events and insights shared at prominent conferences, Jackrabbit Care is helping to shape the future of child care management.

Jackrabbit Care also recently launched an exclusive Ambassador program that partners with leading daycare centers across the United States, offering personalized demos, leadership engagement conversations, complimentary access to the software, and more.

Since 2004, Jackrabbit Technologies has provided thousands of children's development programs software that is innovative, reliable and secure.
