they are teachers or parents. The book offers readers helpful guidance and a heartfelt message that bullying need not be an inevitable aspect of growing up.

About the Author

Bradley L. Lewis grew up in a suburb of Chicago and was bullied for years. His journey from being a bullied child to facing harassment as an adult has given him unique insight into the lasting effects of bullying. The heartbreaking loss of his son due to bullying has strengthened his commitment to this cause.

Lewis brings his personal experiences and deep understanding to Jordan's Voice Against Bullying.
