

Salem Law Office Gilroy Napoli Short Expands with Addition of Joseph Morones

As a leader in Oregon's legal landscape, Gilroy Napoli Short is distinguished by its dedication to excellence and client-focused representation.

SALEM, OR, UNITED STATES, December 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gilroy Napoli Short Law Group proudly announces the addition of Joseph "Joey" Morones to their Salem location. With a strong background in criminal defense, Morones brings a dedication to client advocacy and a commitment to achieving fair, just outcomes for all individuals seeking representation.

A graduate of Willamette University College of Law, Morones has demonstrated an exceptional commitment to defending clients' rights through hands-on courtroom experience across Oregon.

Joseph Morones, Attorney at Law

Before joining the law firm, Joey refined his legal acumen and honed his passion for criminal defense as a clerk at the Clark County District Attorney's Office.

"Joey's extensive training, combined with his strong analytical skills and his dedication to advocating for clients, makes him an outstanding addition to our team." said Jason Short, a partner at Gilroy Napoli Short Law Group. "He brings a unique blend of practical experience and a client-centered approach that aligns perfectly with our firm's mission of ensuring justice for all."

At Gilroy Napoli Short Law Group, Morones is committed to clear, transparent communication with his clients, helping them through the legal process with confidence and clarity. "I believe in the power of a strong attorney-client relationship, and I am dedicated to making sure my clients fully understand their rights and options," said Morones. "Every person deserves a fair chance in court, and I am here to advocate vigorously for that right."
