Business Circle, a globally recognized platform for fostering economic diplomacy and business collaboration, is proud to announce its rebranding as The Deal Makers. This strategic name change underscores the organization's dedication to forging high-impact partnerships and enabling groundbreaking business opportunities across diverse sectors and geographies.

We're not just changing our name—we're redefining the scope of our influence. The Deal Makers is a name that reflects both our achievements to date and our aspirations for the future.”

Dr. Raphael Nagel

Why The Deal Makers?

The new name reflects the organization's evolution as a hub for facilitating meaningful transactions and collaborations among investors, entrepreneurs, and industry leaders. By adopting this identity, The Deal Makers emphasizes its role as a dynamic force in connecting visionaries and driving impactful business outcomes.

"The Deal Makers captures the very essence of our mission—to connect, inspire, and empower individuals and businesses to achieve extraordinary goals," says Dr. Raphael Nagel LL.M., Founder and Chairman of The Abrahamic Business Circle now The Deal Makers. "This rebrand represents our commitment to staying ahead of industry trends and creating a truly global platform for innovation and growth."

Inspiration Behind the Change

The rebranding aligns with the organization's core values of inclusivity, collaboration, and excellence. It reflects the proactive, results-driven approach that defines the community and its achievements. With over 20 successful events, partnerships in 56 countries, and a network spanning entrepreneurs, investors, and diplomats, the organization is primed to elevate its impact under its new name.

What's Next?

Under the banner of The Deal Makers, the organization will continue to host high-profile events, provide exclusive networking opportunities, and facilitate connections that translate into tangible business success. Members and stakeholders can look forward to innovative initiatives that further enhance the value of their involvement.

"We're not just changing our name—we're redefining the scope of our influence," adds Dr. Nagel "The Deal Makers is a name that reflects both our achievements to date and our aspirations for the future."
